Frequently Asked Questions

If I was unable to get my canvas stamped on Saturday or Monday, how do I get it stamped?

If you were unable to have your canvas stamped at one of the scheduled times above, please reach out to either:

Lxi Weber - (307)-880-5949

Doug Monson - (435)-660-0589

These are our facilitators with access to the stamping material. They will work out a time with you to get your canvas stamped.

Where does Star Valley Plein Air take place?

The plein air event starts on Saturday, October 3rd, at 11am. Canvases can be stamped at the Western Skies Fine Art Gallery in Afton. We will host a free breakfast on Monday, October 5th at 8:00am, where you can also get your canvases stamped. (If you aren't attending the breakfast, you may take your canvases to Western Skies Fine Art Gallery to be stamped, starting at 11am on Monday the 5th.) Entries are due to Western Skies Fine Art gallery by 3pm on Thursday, October 9th. The gallery is located at 912 Washington Street, Afton, WY 83110.

Where am I allowed to paint?

The geographic limitations are anywhere within a 60 miles radius of Afton, WY. This encompasses all of Star Valley, as well as the Greys River, Snake River Canyon and Cokeville. We can provide direction to scenic places which may be ideal for you to paint.

What are the rules of the “Nocturne Paint Out”?

Interested participants can sign up to participate in the nocturne event for only $10. (Must be registered for the main plein air event to participate.)

The location is TBD. Facilitators will be available to stamp participant's canvases at 6:45pm. This will be a different stamp than for the main event.

No underpaintings are allowed.

There is no size restriction.

Painting will begin at 7:00pm and will end at 10:00pm.

These paintings must be framed and given to the Faciliator by 10:00pm. These paintings will be displayed in their own section at the gallery.

What prizes are available?

There will be judged awards and purchase awards available for the event. (See amounts below). Purchase awards are given by our sponsors. They will view the art directly after judging and will pick a piece to purchase for the pre-determined amount (listed below). Purchase awards will also be given solely for the nocturne event. Judging for the beginner and experienced awards will take place Thursday evening. Pieces will be judged based on composition, value, technique, and overall visual interest. The chosen artists will receive their award at the award ceremony Saturday night. Their pieces will still be available for public purchase in the Western Skies Art Gallery, and will be displayed with a ribbon.
